

In community and with others on this trip, I commit with my team to:

- Be a servant. I will represent the community I am visiting well knowing that when I leave, the community there must continue working.
- Be a guest. I will view myself as a guest and a learner. I will work to be a listener rather than a teacher and will be open to new ways of doing life.
- Be merciful. I will respect the lives of those I encounter, both inside and outside of my group, showing mercy and love in all situations.
- Be a part of the community. I will participate in the pre-trip meetings for the betterment of myself and the group, and will listen to the decisions the group makes together.
- Be a learner. I will see challenges we face as places of learning and growth.
- Be present. I will work to not be preoccupied by happenings at home.
- Be changed. I know that God wishes to teach me through this experience, and I go ready and willing to hear God's spirit speak to me.
