Christian Women Connection Tea

Arnetta Bailey
Director, Christian Women Connection

Christian women of God, CWC is excited to partner with missionaries to Sri Lanka Steven & Peggy Beverly with the Mission: Possible! Missions Week.

Gathering safely during the pandemic has been difficult. Mission: Possible! is an opportunity to think creatively about ways to continue your faithful partnership with missions, safely and significantly.

First, encourage your church to participate in Mission: Possible! Missions Week. It will be a blessing for the entire church. Second, discuss safely (by distance or video) over tea, coffee, or cider some of the suggestions below. These inexpensive ideas can make a real difference for the missionaries you support.

Consider these non-monetary ideas for your CWC, in addition to your faithful support of missions through CWC. Share your thoughts, creative ideas, and experiences on the Mission: Possible! Facebook Group (www.facebook.com/groups/omgmp/).

Christian Women Connection On Mission for God!

Bless the Missionary Child – Children aren't often of an age to have a voice in parents' decision to answer God's call to missions. Children can struggle to adapt to their new way of life. How can your CWC group do something special for a missionary child?

Bless the Woman Missionary – Female missionaries often find themselves serving in male-dominated societies. The culture can be challenging, dangerous, and exhausting. What are some creative ways to encourage and refresh women who are serving overseas?

Bless the Missionary Teenager – Teenagers face particularly difficult cultural adaptation concerns. Many struggle with finding their identity in their adopted culture and their home culture. Often called third culture kids, how can your CWC help a teen feel more accepted at home and overseas?

Bless the Missionary Couple – Isolated from family, friends, and church, missionary couples may feel alone and forgotten. The stress of doing ministry in a foreign environment can weigh heavily on relationships. Do you know the anniversary of a missionary couple? How can your CWC bless them?

Bless the Missionary Family – Raising children in a foreign country is difficult. Homeschool, international school, boarding school, cultural adjustment, medical care ... these are difficult considerations at home and are even more difficult and stressful in a foreign environment. What are some ways your CWC can support a missionary family? 🌍
